

Geo-Right-Brainers

Ever thought that geocaching was too skewed towards maths and science, do puzzle caches do your creative right-brain head in?

This Mega we want to acknowledge, embrace and celebrate creative geo-souls.

Check out the geo categories, submit your entry and get your 15 seconds of fame.

Category

Description

Early submissions Welcome! Final cut off for submissions is Sunday 6pm

Epitaph

A fitting tribute for a geocacher's tombstone or memorial notice in the newspaper.

E.g. "Here lies Jason - who will no longer cache on. RIP Jason."

Haiku

A three lined Japanese poem with five syllables in the first line, seven in the second line and 5 in the last line.

*E.g. "Evil geoache
Hidden in blackberry thorns
Curse you Tankengine."*

Sonnet

Channel your inner Shakespeare.

E.g. "How do I solve thee, let me count the red herrings."

Twitter Poem

Tweet a poem in less than 280 characters.

Freelance

Let your creativity go nuts.

Fortune Cookie Advice

E.g. "The shortest route is not always the quickest."

Limerick

E.g. "There was a man from Nantucket, who found a cache as big as a bucket. A caching away, whilst on holiday, he found a few nice ones in Phuket."

Geo-Karaoke

Submit a video of a geo song with fellow Geocachers that can be displayed on the big screen - or - better yet be performed live.

Kid Zone Poetry

Under 16s only.

Book Adaptation

Poem in the style of Dr Suess, a Golden Book, etc.

INSTRUCTIONS

- * Submit entries as early as possible to joeylovespoetry@gmail.com or by leaving a written entry at the games information table.
- * Live poetry readings will be performed each night at the camp fire.
- * Please indicate if you are happy to read your own entry on stage or would prefer some else to.
- * Anonymous entries are welcome, but please keep them family friendly.